Rena Jackson - Founder, California/Texas Area

My name is Rena Jackson. I am a mother of six, grandmother of five, a book club leader, a boardmember for Achieving Positive Thinking Worldwide, an entrepreneur, and an Empowerment Coach. In 2011, I started making cupcakes for my church's youth group. In 2015, I turned it into a part time business, RenaLoveCreations. I have created over 100 flavors of cupcakes because the customer is who inspires the flavor. It is so much fun to see the joy on a person's face after eating a cupcake they have inspired. This year, I have expanded RenaLoveCreations. Because so often people come to me for advice and inspiration, I am accepting clients to coach them through rough spots and to help them see they have all they need to live in the purpose God has for them. I am also starting an online shop that will sell only items that represent love. RenaLoveCreations mission is to spread LOVE & JOY through an experience created by me but inspired by YOU.

Ysabel Hilado - Fashion Designer, LOS ANGELES

My name is Ysabel Hilado. I'm a 22-year-old womenswear fashion designer in the Los Angeles area. I started my journey as a fashion designer when I was in middle school. At the time, I was only 13 and didn't have a source of income. I didn't want to ask my parents all the time for money when I wanted to buy the latest trends at the mall. I am now attending Long Beach City College (LBCC) and California State University, Long Beach (CSULB) for their fashion program while also working a part-time job. My first semester of college, in 2016 was the first time I ever took a formal sewing class. Currently, there's no events lined up due to COVID-19, but I am posting my work and what I'm up to daily on social media! I want to inspire the youth and young adults, my age, that you don't need to have a lot of money to pursue a passion. From the beginning of my journey to now, I've received countless opportunities from fashion shows to even getting casted on the television show, Project Runway Junior Season 1 in 2015. I'm using TikTok and YouTube, to specifically teach people sewing tips and techniques. All my work, features, and contact information can be found on my website <http://www.ysabelhilado.com>. All my social media (Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, TikTok) are all under my name, @ysabelhilado.
